Inspired by the breath-taking view of scenery during a holiday trip to China, Saenkom Chansrinual created this new collection of artwork titled "Grand Mountain" to praise the greatness of nature and the heavenly view from the top of the mountain. Since young, he has been a nature lover and always loves to travel to places where he can only find himself surrounded by trees and mountains.

"Grand Mountain" is an art of nature that captivates and melts the hearts of many. The media used in this series of artwork is remarkable. He used a self-formulated technique in which the acrylic paints were overlaid and essentially "planted" into the canvas to form magnificent mountain scenery which transports the viewers into a sense of peacefulness. Lately, he has incorporated waterfalls into this exclusive range of artwork.

He has participated in many exhibitions in Thailand and has won several prestigious art awards over the years, distinctively the ASEAN art award in year 2000.
