She loves nature. Since young, Tirawan has been impressed and inspired by the beauty of lotus leaves. To share her love towards the plant, she uses its different elements like shape, form and colours which are in tune with her inner feelings to create her exclusive range of lotus artworks. The self-formulated mixed media of acrylic, mud and gold leaf has further enhanced the uniqueness of her paintings. She has participated in many exhibitions in her motherland of Thailand and has won several prestigious art awards over the years.
